Message From The Vicar

Dearly beloved in Christ Jesus,

During one of our Sunday worship services this month, we will be reflecting on the theme “Holy Baptism: Uniting with Christ,” in keeping with the lectionary of the Church. This is an opportune moment to contemplate the meaning of baptism and our vocation as baptized Christians.

The foundation of the sacrament of baptism lies in the very command of Jesus: “Go therefore and make disciples of all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit...” (Matthew 28:19-20). Baptism is the sacrament of initiation into the Christian life—the first step on our lifelong journey of discipleship. Among the many profound meanings and implications of this sacrament, the understanding of baptism as our participation in the life, death, and resurrection of Christ deserves prayerful reflection. As St. Paul powerfully expresses in Romans 6:1-14, baptism signals our death to sin and a rebirth into new life in Christ. In other words, baptism marks our turning away from a life dominated by self-centeredness, evil, and sin, and turning toward a new life oriented around Jesus and his message of the Kingdom of God.

Baptism is a living, daily reality and not just an event relegated to the past. Every baptized person is called to continually live out their baptismal identity - “not to let sin exercise dominion in your mortal bodies, to make you obey their passions,” but to “present yourselves to God as those who have been brought from death to life, and your members to God as instruments of righteousness.”

To be baptized is to enter a journey of faith, in which we grow ever more deeply into our identity in Christ. It is a call not only to union with Christ but also to fellowship with the community of believers and to a life marked by righteousness, justice, and love. May God enable us to fulfil our baptismal calling.

“...Bless this your servant who now joins your Church. Enlighten his/her mind that he/she may see the vanity of the world and renounce all the works of death, and so offer to you, Father, Son, and Holy Spirit, praise and glory, now and forever.”

(From the Order of Worship for Holy Baptism)

Prayerful Regards
Joseph John achen.
