Message From The Vicar

Dearly beloved in Christ Jesus,

Churches across the world are observing this year as the 1700th Anniversary of the Nicene Creed. The Nicene Creed, formally articulated at the First Ecumenical Council of Nicaea (held in A.D. 325 near present-day İznik, Turkey), represents the faith community's response to the intense debates of that time, particularly concerning the identity and status of Jesus Christ.

For centuries the Church grappled with how best to articulate the profound mystery of the union between divinity and humanity in the person of Jesus Christ. The Nicene Creed affirms that in Jesus Christ, God became fully incarnate - Jesus Christ is fully God and fully human. As a human being, Jesus Christ is present to us in the depths of our suffering, misery and even death, fully understanding our human experiences. As fully God, Jesus offers us God's own life, forgiveness and salvation.

The Creed's language, though profound, cannot fully capture the great mystery of who Christ is. Jesus Christ is always greater than our faith articulations and confessions. Yet, across the centuries, the Nicene Creed has remained a guiding confession of faith, continually inviting the Church to reaffirm its trust in the Triune God—Father, Son, and Holy Spirit. We have every reason to celebrate when we recall the difficult path the Creed has traversed—through all its struggles, it has faithfully enshrined, preserved, and transmitted the apostolic faith upon which our own faith and that of every generation is built.

On Sunday, the 21st of this month, immediately after the worship service, we will host a Seminar on the Nicene Creed, led by Rev. Dr. George Oommen, Former Professor of History of Christianity at the United Theological College, Bangalore. Let this seminar be an opportunity for us to deepen our understanding, renew our commitment, and reflect together on how the Nicene Creed continues to shape our Christian life and witness today.

Let the Creed be like a mirror for you. Look at yourself in it to see whether you really believe all that you claim to believe. And rejoice every day in your faith. (St. Augustine of Hippo, 4th Century)

Prayerful regards
Joseph John Achen

IMTC COMMUNICATION CHANNELS

Web Portal: We invite members to check out the updated church website with new features and functionalities at www.immanuelmtc.org. There are several new resources like updated lectionary, Bible Verses in three different languages, various channels for our organizations, exclusive channels for media that include podcasts, video and photo galleries, exclusive section for our church history, and that of the North American Diocese.

Mobile App: Complete Church information on your fingertips. Events, Lectionary, Vicar/Asst. Vicar Messages, Organizations, Executive Committee, member directory, vlogs, podcasts and much more.... For support, please send an email to mobile.support@immanuelmtc.org

OneCallNow: Apart from newsletter and announcement during sunday service, we use "ONECALLNOW" communication platform to circulate key information regarding church service and other activities. If you are not receiving regular emails, voice calls or text messages from parish, please contact the parish secretary. Email: Secretary@immanuelmtc.org; Text: 832-205-6860.
